NAYLOR OUT FOR GOOD OF CAUSE

Tomah Progressive Gives Up Senatorial Aspirations to Help Cinch La Follette Victory

HE EMULATES TOM MORRIS

Action Taken by Young Lawyer Means that Progressives will Get Together on One

TOMAH, Wis., June 11.—(Special.)—By the withdrawal of W. B. Naylor of this city from the state senatorial race in this district a political situation embarrassing to the La Follette men is clarified and promises to end in the centering of the progressives upon a single candidate.

Prior to the withdrawal of Mr. Naylor there were three progressive candidates in the field, the other two being Howard Teasdale of Sparta and Walter S. Hake of Elroy, principal of the schools of that city. The stalwart candidate is C. M. Fromm, a prominent merchant of Camp Douglas. The three-cornered split in the ranks of the La Follette men created a possibility of the nomination of Fromm, which is now reduced to a minimum, and which would be wiped out entirely in case of the withdrawal of either of the remaining two progressive candidates.

In announcing his withdrawal Mr. Naylor takes a patriotic position, making a sacrifice much like that made by Senator Tom Morris in relation to the governorship, and in having gone so far he convinces his partisans that he will do his utmost in behalf of some other progressive candidate. His announcement follows:

The Announcement.
"The history of the progressive movement in this state shows that the chief cause of its temporary and uncalculated defeats, is the fact that we are prone to present a divided front, i. e., too many candidates for the same office. Too many seem to badly confuse their patriotic or political zeal with a lust for office, and a personal ambition for leadership. We must not be forgetful of the fact that every army needs 'privates' more than officers, and that 'there is glory enough for us all.'"

"A careful survey of the senatorial situation in this district, with three of us as progressive candidates instead of one, convinces me that this same danger is impending here and can only be averted by the withdrawal of two. As the best proof of my sincerity (which some have for political reasons claimed to doubt), I now propose to be the first to withdraw as such candidate, and take my place in the ranks. This will demonstrate to any unprejudiced mind that I am interested in the coming campaign of Senator La Follette, at least to that degree that I am willing to place his election as the first and greater object, to attain which it is a pleasant duty to sink my personal ambitions for office."

"To those at all familiar with the political situation, I need hardly say that this step is not taken by outside advice or request; it is purely voluntary. It is against the advice of many, and it is at a time when assurances of support are coming in from every quarter. I desire to be free of the remotest share of any responsibility for a possible defeat, that might otherwise reasonably ensue to our cause."

"To the newspapers and to all those who have so cordially tendered me their valuable support, I like this opportunity to express my keen appreciation and deepest gratitude; and I trust that my course in this matter as in the past, may upon calm reflection, meet with your approval."

Very respectfully,
"WM. B. NAYLOR, JR."

MINNESOTANS TO AID LA FOLLETTE

Progressives at Meeting Decide to Give Active Support to Wisconsin Man

MADISON, Wis., June 11.—(Special.)—La Follette leaders here have received information this morning that the Minnesota progressives at a meeting in Minneapolis last night pledged active support to La Follette in the latter's fight for re-election in this state.

Many offered to go on the stump in Wisconsin and to help in the distribution of literature and in other ways. They agreed to send a telegram to La Follette promising their aid. La Follette's fight was of more than state wide concern, they said, as is indicated by the fact the campaign against him was waged against him by powerful eastern interests representing the special privileges, and that Wisconsin's concern is also Minnesota's.

CHARGE TO SUGAR JURY DOUBTFUL

NEW YORK, June 11.—The jury in the case of Charles R. Heike, Ernest W. Gerbracht and James F. Bendernagel, accused of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the sugar imports, began consideration of the evidence in the case. When court convened, Judge Martin charged the jury.

The court made it plain the jury was not to consider the fact that Spitzer had been pardoned to testify in the case, but cautioned them to take into consideration that he was a confessed perjurer.

SHIPPERS MEET TAFT

CHICAGO, June 11.—It is announced that the sub-committee of the Western Shippers' organization will meet and confer with President Taft in Washington next Monday, supposedly for the purpose of commending the chief executive for his action halting an attempted increase in freight rates on the part of the railroads. The meeting was arranged by General Chairman John E. Wilder. The committee of shippers will leave Chicago bound for the White House Sunday.

The committee will get together at the New Willard hotel, Washington, at 10 a. m. Monday.

MRS. DYNES HURT

CHICAGO, June 11.—Mrs. O. W. Dynes, wife of the assistant general solicitor of the C. M. and St. P., was seriously injured yesterday by being thrown from a runaway in which she has just driven her husband to his office. The horses ran away and Mrs. Dynes was hurled to the pavement when the team struck a wagon. Mrs. Dynes struck on her head and was unconscious when picked up. She will recover.

BEAUTIFUL WOMAN IN SUNKEN TRUNK

COMO, Italy, June 11.—Fishermen casting their nets in Lake Como, drew up a heavy iron bound trunk containing the body of a well dressed young woman. The skull had been beaten in and there were other marks of violence.

Search of the corpse revealed a number of letters written in English, the contents of which have been suppressed by the police, who are now searching for an American couple who occupied a cottage on the lake. They were known as Mr. and Mrs. Porter. Three days ago they disappeared, leaving the cottage locked up. The authorities broke in today but it is not yet known whether they found any valuable clues.

$1,000,000 FIRE SWEEPS SEATTLE

Six Square Blocks of Buildings Wiped Out by Worst Blaze in 21 Years in Coast City

THREE FIREMEN ARE KILLED

Between 50 and 75 Are Unaccounted for, but All Have Probably Escaped

SEATTLE, Wash., June 11.—Though between 50 and 75 persons were reported missing following the disastrous fire here early today, which wiped out six blocks of buildings and caused $1,000,000 loss, it was stated by the police and fire authorities at noon that all the missing have been accounted for, and that no one was killed. Three firemen who disappeared during the height of the fire were found later, two seriously injured and one unhurt.

The fire was the most disastrous Seattle has known in 21 years, only having been exceeded in property damage by the big conflagration of 1889. Only what seemed a miraculous lull in a 45 mile gale which was spreading the flames with lightning rapidity, saved North Seattle from destruction.

At 6 a. m. when the flames had been raging for seven hours unchecked, the firemen, using every piece of apparatus in the city and adjoining towns had been unable to do more than partially control the fire, owing to the terrific wind which was blowing. Under the chief's orders the firemen were preparing to dynamite a number of buildings surrounding a fire zone, when the wind suddenly ceased and a light rain began to fall. This extinguished the flying sparks and firebrands and checked the fire's spread.

Ruins Still Like Furnace

At noon the ruins were too hot to permit a search for missing persons, but the fire department authorities expressed the belief that few had perished. Except the three firemen, all the persons reported missing were occupants of a row of lodging houses which were in the path of the flames. It is now believed these people escaped alive though a large number of them have not yet been accounted for. The fire started in the Galbraith warehouse and the damage was done in the vicinity of the Pacific hospital.

The fire started in the warehouse at midnight and while a veritable gale was blowing from the west, the wind spread the flames with alarming rapidity. After the Bacon-Galbraith building was a mass of fire. Most of the buildings nearby were flimsy wooden affairs and as a consequence the fire spread with the rapidity of a prairie fire.

It was all a squad of policemen could do to keep ahead of the flames and warn the occupants of the wooden structures, half a dozen of which were boarding houses, to vacate.

PINCHOT ARRIVES

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 11.—Gifford Pinchot, former forester of the United States, and James R. Garfield, former secretary of the Interior, leaders in the "back from Elba" movement against President Taft, arrived early today and will speak at the conservation banquet tonight given by the Roosevelt club, at the Ryan Hotel.

DOUBLE INFANT MURDER

CHICAGO, June 11.—The police are searching for the occupants of an automobile, the tracks of which lead to a stagnant ditch that contained the bodies of two murdered male infants. A woman engaged in cutting grass this morning found them in a gunny sack.

"JIM" MAY FIRE STEPHENSON FOE

A. E. Schwittay who has Fought "Ike," Likely will Be Suspended by Davidson

MADISON, Wis., June 11.—(Special.)—It is expected that some time today that District Attorney A. E. Schwittay of Marinette county, will be suspended by Governor James O. Davidson and a temporary prosecutor appointed. Disbarment proceedings are pending against Schwittay and a libel suit has been filed against him. Some time ago an unknown person fired upon him, and more recently he figured in an assault and battery case with Edward Leroy, Stephenson leader in that community and a member of the assembly who was at one time Stephenson's choice for the speakership. The editor of the Marinette Eagle-Star, Stephenson's paper, was also mixed in the scrap, having argued before the county board against a petition from Schwittay that he be allowed a stenographer at the county expense.

The fight against Schwittay is political. He started the graft investigation in Marinette county and succeeded in involving the Eagle-Star, among other men and institutions, in public frauds. He is the leader of the anti-Stephenson forces there, and has incurred the bitter enmity of the Stephenson crowd. In the past other efforts have been made to get rid of Schwittay through the agency of Governor Davidson, but up to this time it has been impossible to find anything against him.

LYON RESIGNS

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—The resignation of Ernest Lyon, negro minister to Liberia, has been received here by the state department.

Lyon's resignation was accepted to make a vacancy for Wm. D. Crum, the Charleston, S. C., negro postmaster, whose name was sent in a few days before by President Taft.

VANDERBILT WINS MARATHON

LONDON, June 11.—Alfred G. Vanderbilt today won the Millionaire's marathon event from Bushy Park to Olympia, ten miles.

The race was the big event in connection with the international horse show.

Surplus of banks is $23,521,200 against $18,484,825 last year and $58,349,400 two years ago.
Totals loans $1,192,120,800.

(Copyright 1910 by the New York Evening Post Company.)

NEW YORK, June 11.—Both here and abroad prices declined on the stock exchange today. In this account the downward tendency was general, but the weakness was most pronounced in the few stocks where professional speculation has lately been most active. Declines of a point or more occurred in Reading, Union Pacific and Steel, but elsewhere losses were for the most part measured by fractions. There was little general activity on the decline and at times the market fell into absolute dullness. Two somewhat interesting incidents of the day's foreign markets were the extent to which London directed its attention to our copper situation and the continued evidence of arrival in rubber share speculation on the European exchanges. Sterling was a trifle firmer.

DIED LIKE RATS ON OCEAN BOTTOM

Half of Pluviose Victims Lived More than 24 Hours, Say the French Doctors

SMOTHERED IN CLOSED PART

Ill-fated Submarine Is Towed to Shoals and Picture Men Are Driven Off

PARIS, June 11.—A number of the members of the crew of the ill-fated submarine Pluviose died of suffocation in the inner compartments of the craft at the bottom of the channel.

They were slowly suffocated while the divers were searching the muddy waters for the sunken torpedo boat, which they had lost after locating it on the morning following the disaster. Had there been any way of hoisting the Pluviose to the surface when it was discovered the afternoon of the collision with the Pas de Calais at least half the crew of 27 officers and men would have been rescued but they were left to die at the bottom like rats in a trap.

Half were Alive

Navy doctors at Calais who examined the bodies taken from the inner compartments declare today that the men lived more than 24 hours after the submarine was sent to the bottom by the channel steamer. These victims were less fortunate than their fellows who were in the bow and outer compartments. The latter were drowned immediately after the collision, the water pouring in through the gash made by the tearing away of the deck plates on the forward bow. The amidships compartment, however, was closed and all who were in the stern of the submarine could have been rescued if the boat had been promptly floated, or if there had been any way for them to get out while the craft was lying in the mud at the bottom of the channel.

Relatives Hysterical

The removal of the bodies of the victims of the disaster began today in the harbor at Calais. The hull had been towed there during the night and Admiral Bellue was in charge.

Relatives of the dead men watched hysterically as the steel coffin was towed into the shallow water and it was necessary to station a guard to forcibly restrain some of them until the boat could be opened.

While waiting for the tide to fall so that the upper works of the ill-fated craft could be uncovered, Admiral Bellue placed a big cross of flowers on the boat's bow. Moving picture photographers placed their cameras in position where they could take pictures of the opening of the boat and this commercialism enraged the crowd. The photographers were set upon and badly beaten and then driven away from the scene while their machines were smashed.

As the tide receded it was plainly seen the entire port side of the craft was smashed in as though with blows with a gigantic hammer.

The first body was taken from the Pluviose at 9:15. As it was tenderly lowered and carried into the temporary morgue that had been arranged, the cries and sobs of the relatives of the victims were heartrending. The work of removing the other bodies proceeded very slowly as most were in bad shape from the action of the water.

PULLMAN CO. LOSES

CHICAGO, June 11.—The U. S. circuit court this afternoon refused to grant the injunction prayed for by the Pullman Company to restrain the interstate commerce commission from ordering a reduction in the price of upper berths. Judge Grosscup, Baker and Seaman all concurred in the decision.

SUGAR GRAFTERS TO BE SENTENCED

Court will Pass Punishment August 30 Unless an Appeal Is Granted Before

NEW YORK, June 11.—Sentence will be imposed on Charles R. Heike, secretary of the sugar trust, and Ernest W. Gerbracht, former superintendent of its Williamsburg refinery, on August 30, following conviction by the jury.

Before they appear for sentence it is expected their counsel will have perfected plans for appeal. James F. Bendernagel, regarding whose guilt a jury twice disagreed, was allowed to go on his own recognizance and his personal bond of $5,000. It is not expected he will be tried again.

Former Assistant Superintendent Harry W. Walker and James F. Halligan, Jr., a former checker on the sugar docks who entered pleas of guilty, were given three months each on Blackwells Island. Jean Voelker, the aged checker, who also entered a plea of guilty, was released on a suspended sentence. Prosecutor Stimson urging this on the ground that the old man has only a few days to live.

ATHLETIC STADIUM FOR NAVAL SCHOOL

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—The building of a concrete stadium for athletic exhibitions and the purchase of three additional blocks of grounds for the naval academy at Annapolis are recommended in the report of the board of visitors, made public at the navy department today. The report states that the members of the board are gratified by the good results and the high standard and efficiency of the naval school.

ANTI-JEWISH FIRE BUGS BURN TOWN

ST. PETERSBURG, June 11.—Police of Borissov are today investigating a well founded charge that a destruction of a large part of the city by fire yesterday was the work of a group of anti-Jewish incendiaries. Nearly all of the 400 buildings destroyed were owned by the Jews. Several suspects have been arrested and they are said to have confessed that the fire was planned by a number of "Jew baiters" of Borissov.

TEDDY DOG DOCTOR

ON BOARD THE KAISERIN AUGUSTE VICTORIA, VIA WIRELESS TO LONDON, June 11.—Bongo is sick. Accompanied by Col. Theodore Roosevelt and his family, Bongo is now enroute to America. Bongo is not the animal of that name that Kermit Roosevelt shot in the interior of Africa. He is just an ordinary dog that was given to Miss Ethel Roosevelt by one of her London friends and named in honor of Kermit's rare achievement in killing a bongo.

Col. Roosevelt is acting as doctor in chief.

LAWLER MUST EXPLAIN

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—Oscar Lawler, assistant attorney general for the interior department, author of the famous Lawler draft of President Taft's letter, exonerating Secretary Ballinger, may be asked to appear before the rules committee of the house and tell upon what authority he sent Mexican political refugees to prison, when he was United States attorney for South California.

FLIGHT IS DELAYED

NEW YORK, June 11.—A combination of a southeast gale and heavy rain interfered today with the proposed flight of Charles K. Hamilton, in his aeroplane from this city to Philadelphia and return, and the attempt was postponed until Monday.

SEARCH WORLD FOR MURDERER OF WIFE

Police All Over Europe Are Seeking Porter Charlton, whose Wife's Body was in Trunk

HE SOON TIRED OF HED

And Police Believe He May Know Something of the Murder of Miss Stella Reid

COMO, Italy, June 11.—The whole of Italy is being searched today and the seas are being strewn with wireless messages in an effort to apprehend Porter Charlton of Washington, the youthful husband of Mrs. Mary Scott Castle Charlton, whose mutilated body was taken from a trunk in Lake Como yesterday.

The theory that Charlton also was slain has been abandoned by the police. There are reports that he was seen in Como as late as Wednesday but these have not been verified.

Constantine Ismatloff, the Russian arrested at Roggiano yesterday, who was seen many times in the company of the Charltons at their cottage near Moltrasio, has been sweated by the police, but has thrown no light on the murder. The police, however, look upon him as an important witness and police experts from Rome have arrived here to continue the investigation of the Russian.

Implicate Other Murder

Ismatloff says that he last saw the Charltons in their cottage and that there was nothing there to indicate that a crime was impending. The authorities cling to the belief that there may be a connection between the murder of Mrs. Charlton and the murder of Miss Stella Reid, the New York girl, whose body was found on the beach at Naples on

Pelham, the Famous English Hypnotist, at the Majestic Next Week

PELHAM AT THE MAJESTIC MONDAY

Wonderful Hypnotist who Draws $450 Weekly Salary, Stellar Attraction of the Year

MUSICAL VYNOS A FEATURE

Excellent Musicians who Get Music from Farm Implements Also on the Bill

The stellar attraction of the year in local vaudeville circles will be shown to La Crosse theater patrons next week, when Dr. E. Pelham, the celebrated English hypnotist, will be at the Majestic. Pelham has been engaged for this country, exclusively by Sullivan and Considine imperial vaudeville circuit and by Manager Koppelberger, particularly for La Crosse, at the enormous weekly salary of $450. He is the highest paid performer that has even appeared in a vaudeville performance of any kind in this city.

Pelham comes directly from London, where he has just completed a special two year engagement with the London hippodrome. That he was a striking success in every way is shown by the reluctance with which he was permitted to come to America and by the enormous salary which he is now receiving.

Pelham completely mystified the English people, including the many scientists of that scientific country. His entertainment is something entirely new the like of which has never before been seen in this country. He makes his audience weep and laugh until they hold their sides. He is able to control an audience by his wonderful performance and from past hypnotic performances, one knows how funny such a show can really become. Pelham's performance is termed a scientific exhibition of concentration of the mind, this being what hypnotism is supposed to be. It is mysterious and unexplainable at the best and scientists and physicians who have studied it, confess that they have been baffled by this wonderful man. Pelham is without a peer in the hypnotic world. There is none that can approach him and in his performance he demonstrates wonderful and mysterious feats such as have never been seen. One of his particularly sensational feats is the controlling of the blood in a human being. He bares a man's arm and will make the blood leave the veins. The life giving fluid is then called back into one finger, then another and then into separate members. It is a sensational act which promises to eclipse anything which has ever been put on at any local theaters.

The Vynos
The Vynos is a musical act and one which promises a novelty such as has never been seen here. The actors in the sketch are a man and a woman of real musical ability. It comes heralded as the funniest musical act that has ever been presented on the Sullivan and Considine circuit. The scene is laid in a farm yard. Elaborate stage settings are carried by the Vynos and all sorts of farm instruments are turned into musical instruments at the will of the musicians. The milking from a painted cow is one of the funniest stunts that the pair pull off, bringing forth peals of laughter from the spectators in the audience. The close of the act sees a quick change to Scotch costume, a pleasant climax. It promises to be one of the bright parts of the program.

Gil Brown
Gil Brown, that funny American comedian known from one end of the United States to the other as a prince of funny fellows, will be seen in a singing, talking and dancing sketch. Brown has just completed the Orpheum circuit, being one of the biggest hits of the season. His act is one of the best of its kind now on the vaudeville stage and should be well received by the Majestic theater patrons next week.

DR. FELHAM GETS $42 PER HOUR

Dr. E. Pelham, the celebrated English hypnotist who will appear at the Majestic theater all next week has been engaged at the enormous weekly salary of $450. This is the highest paid vaudeville performer that has ever come to the city. Pelham's act lasts about half an hour and it is estimated that his salary for the hour is about $42. He performs sensational stunts such as standing on the form of a man suspended between two chairs and placing another subject in such a rigid position across two chairs that a number of heavy men can stand upon his chest, stomach and legs.

Pelham, in a Scientific Exhibition of Concentration of the Mind, at the Majestic All Week, June 13 to 19.

Malatesta and Pixley
As the last act on the bill Manager Koppelberger has booked Malatesta and Pixley in comedy singing and talking and dancing. Pixley's character comedy is well known to all followers of comic opera and his choice delineations of various comic characters will probably be one of the hits at the local theater next week.

Miss Ida Aiken will sing one of the latest popular ballads which will be illustrated with pictures. Several thousand feet of moving picture film have been secured for the banner week of the season. The entire show promises to be one of the best that has been put on at any local theater for some time.

YEOMEN DECORATE GRAVES JUNE 19

The Brotherhood of American Yeomen will observe their annual memorial day on Sunday, June 19. Members of the order have made arrangements to march to Oak Grove cemetery at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and hold services over the grave of Miss Clara Johnson. Should the weather be unfavorable the services will be held at the hall, 418-420 Main street.

The following are the deceased members of the local order:

LARGE EXHAUST FAN INSTALLED

Majestic Theatre Preparing for Hot Summer Weather; will Be Coolest Spot in Town

In preparation for the hot weather which the months of June and July bring, Manager Koppelberger has taken steps to make the Majestic theater the coolest place in the city. A large exhaust fan, the largest in the city has been installed in the west wall of the building just opposite the balcony and a number of smaller fans of the same sort have been installed at other places in the building. When the fans are turned on, each operating under the influence of a large voltage of electric power, a continual circulation of air is formed which keeps the building cool and comfortable for the audience. The air in the building is constantly changing, thus making it one of the most sanitary atmospheres in any building in the city. The idea is a new one in the city, having originated with Manager Koppelberger. No other theater in the city is installed with such cooling devices and this fact promises much for the theater attendance during the summer months.

The deceased members of the local homestead, buried away from here, are: Alfred Zimmer, Canada; Ruth Bleekman, Sparta, Wis.; Ella Thompson, Galesville, Wis.; Otto Nicolai, Mormon Coulee.

Little Elsie, whose mother was visiting her neighbor, was doing the five-finger exercises.

Thump! Rattle! Bang, Bang! Rattle! Thump!

"Great heavens!" cried the neighbor starting up. "What on earth is your daughter trying to play now?"

"It's an exercise," said little Elsie's mother, beaming with maternal pride "from 'First Steps in Music'."

"First Steps in Music?" repeated the harassed neighbor. "Well, dear, is there nothing she can play with her hands?"—Answers

CHILDREN HEAR "BUNCH OF KIDS"

Little Boys and Girls from the Home of the Friendless at the Theater Today

About twenty-five little boys and girls, inmates of the Home for the Friendless were entertained at the Majestic theater this afternoon at the matinee performance as the special guests of Manager Frank Koppelberger.

They came to see the act of Harris and Robinson, the two boy comedians who are America's youngest song writers in their act entitled "A Bunch of Kids." The little actors knowing that the boys and girls were in the audience performed with unusual ability and the children from the home were pleased so that they applauded so much that the "Kids" were forced to respond to several curtain calls. They repeated several of their songs for the children. The boys and girls were seated in a body and were chaperoned by the matron of the home.

It was a gleeful and happy aggregation of youths that filed out of the theater when the matinee was over. They had enjoyed one of the best treats of their lives and all felt grateful to Manager Koppelberger for his generous hospitality of the afternoon.

AUTOMOBILING WITHOUT GOGGLES

Is it injurious?

To a healthy eye even in the dust and wind it does not cause any great injury. You occasionally hear of a motorist whose optic nerve has withered. This may be a fact and a calamity, but you can hardly attribute it to motoring without goggles. Says Dr. Evenson, The irritation of the conjunctiva (the delicate membrane which lines both eyelids and covers the external portion of the eyeball) produced by the effect of the wind and gathering of the dust on the conjunctiva, will disappear without treatment. One usually suffers from acute catarrh of this, too, yields to treatment.

Anyone who has a chronic disease and especially if the optical system is connected with general debility, may grow worse through motoring without glasses. You may do yourself injury through the draught and dust that arises from motoring by catching cold. If you are so afflicted don't motor in open cars; get your eyes closed.

If your eyes are healthy, no matter how short sighted you are you can motor safely without loss of sight, but it is advisable to wear glasses. "Withering of the optic nerve," probably you mean "atrophy," does not exist. Atrophy is a disease traceable usually to some spinal or cerebral disease.

STEVE HOWARD IS HELD FOR TRIAL

THE LORIMER CASE
Two hundred Illinois editors met in Chicago yesterday and demanded the resignation of United States Senator "Bill" Lorimer on the ground that his election was fraudulently secured. They do not charge him directly with the bribery, but their stand that he must quit the senate is positive and irrevocable. That their concern is for the honor of Illinois is indicated by the fact that the language of the demand that, if Lorimer fail to resign, the senate purge itself of his presence, implies criticism of that body for having so long "stood for" his affiliation with it.

If the action of the Illinois editors had been friendly, which it was not, they could hardly have given the "Blond Boss" better advice. His position is untenable, and every day in which the public sees one Lee O'Neal Browne squirming from one technicality to another to evade trial emphasizes in the popular mind the fitness of resignation as a solution of the problem.

The patness of a cartoon and accompanying text in The Chicago Tribune in which the evolutions of Browne are ridiculed is striking. It is the picture of a boy with hands and face smeared with jam, standing in the last tracks of a jam-stained trail from the jam jar, with the irate mother, slipper in hand, standing over the culprit. The boy is Browne, and the lines below the cartoon follow:
"Johnny, did you take that jam? Answer me this instant!"
"What jam, ma?"
"You know very well what jam. Did you take it?"
"That's a leading question, ma. I can't incriminate myself."
"JOHNNY!"
"And besides, ma, it's no crime to take jam, because there's no mention of blackberry jam in the constitution."
"Johnny, I'm losing patience. Once more, did you take that jam?"
"Ma, I'd like a delay until next fall to prepare my case. My witnesses have gone to Europe."

"You're overruled. If I waited you might destroy the evidence."
"Then I want a change of venue."
"Overruled. This is just as good a place as the woodshed."
"Can I have a habeas corpus, ma?"
"Johnny, you're hurting your own case by all this quibbling. Come now, did you take it or didn't you?"
"Ma, I'd like to appeal the case to some court that isn't in session."
"Nonsense. This court is capable of trying it. If you're guilty I want to know it, and if you're innocent I should think you'd be glad to have a chance to prove it. Are you guilty or not guilty?"
"NOT GUILTY, MA."

SOCIALISTS DISAGREE
Declaring that the utterance is a laughing stock in England, the Chicago Socialist quotes the following paragraph from Col. Roosevelt's Oxford speech:
"Just as little can we afford to follow the doctrinaires of an impossible—and incidentally of a highly undesirable—social revolution which, in destroying individual rights (including property rights) and the family, would destroy the two chief agents in the advance of mankind, and the two chief reasons why either the advance or the preservation of mankind is worth while. It is an evil and a dreadful thing to be callous to sorrow and suffering, and blind to our duty to do all things possible for the betterment of social conditions. But it is an unspeakably foolish thing to strive for this betterment by means so destructive that they would leave no social conditions to better. In dealing with all these social problems, with the intimate relations of the family, with wealth in private use and business use, with labor, with poverty, the one prime necessity is to remember that, though hardness of heart is a great evil, it is no greater an evil than softness of head."

Commenting upon Col. Roosevelt's idea, The Socialist says:
"If there is such a thing as a 'right' of property, it should be given by the act of production. If we are to have 'rights' at all, the right of the producer to his product is the best founded of all rights."
"This right the present system destroys."
"This right Socialism would restore."
"Capitalism preserves property rights in the instruments by which the worker is robbed of his product."
"Socialism would transfer the property rights in these things to the community. By so doing it would restore the right of the producer to his product."

Taft commissioned Connor to defeat La Follette. Philipp, by order of Pfister, called a "convention" in Taft's name, leaving Connor out of it. Connor joined forces with Austin, brewery leader, and captured Philipp's convention, relegating Philipp to the background. Whitehead, in the captured convention, was compelled to kill his own county option idea's chances. Philipp had to be a party to the elimination of Davidson. Did ever politics afford a more amusing "Comedy of Errors?" Is it in flesh and blood for these intra-factional stalwart leaders to sheath their swords and put shoulder to shoulder? Truly, they are having a hard time "fighting" for conciliation, an "hatin' each other for the love of monopoly."

Carroll, near-stalwart, beat Garst for governor in Iowa by from 3,000 to 4,000 votes (estimated). Two years ago Carroll beat Garst by over 26,000 votes. Carroll had the advantage of not being a dyed-in-the-wool "regular." He also had the advantage of the precedent that a governor shall have two terms. Where is the "regular" victory?

ROCK BREAKING TEST
Probably the greatest feat ever performed through mesmerism is the great rock-breaking test as presented by Dr. Herbert L. Flint, the famous hypnotist. Upon special occasions when hypnotism requires a clear, undeniable and sensational test, Dr. Flint presents the scene which has won him fame and the profound admiration, in this country and in Europe. Using that peculiar power known as mesmerism, Dr. Flint with a few passes of his hands transforms a frail young man into a state known as magnetic catalepsy. The subject is next placed upon the backs of two kitchen chairs, the heels and shoulders only being supported. Then a huge rock weighing from four to five hundred pounds is placed upon the body, after which some husky and muscular volunteer from the audience wields a sledge hammer of ten pounds' weight. As blow after blow is struck women scream and sometimes faint and men turn pale, until with a resounding crash the rock falls broken to the floor, while the audience breathes a sigh of the deepest relief that the test has been successful. This demonstration is always given at the close of the performance in order that those of delicate sensibilities can leave the theater before this test without missing any of the other features of the entertainment. Dr. Flint opens his engagement at the La Crosse theater tomorrow (Sunday) night. Souvenir spoons will be given to the ladies.

Fashion Note from Kokomo
I vex me not with stylish duds
Or ultra-fashionable dress,
I do not mind the beaux and buds
Who round about me gayly press.
Let them put on their garments fair,
I'll still be 'mongst the comme il faut—
Whatever thing you choose to wear
Is de rigueur at Kokomo.

A swell reception fills my soul,
With an unending ecstasy,
And when the butler calls the roll
My spirit rises up to G.
What though upon my back I bear
A coat of fifty years ago?
It goes with quite a swagger air
At all the fetes of Kokomo.

What joy at 5 o'clock to sip
A cup of Oolong or Ceylon
With maids of cherry cheek and lip
Whh ne'er a thought of what you've on!
My linen duster may not be
Au fait at York or Chicago,
But you should see it at a tea
Some afternoon at Kokomo.

Long years ago I went to Rome
And tried to call upon the king,
When men are far away from home
Such things are quite the proper thing.
The major domo tall and grand
Declined to let my blue jeans go—
I couldn't make him understand
'Twas evening dress at Kokomo.

Upon the whole, I'm glad my lot
Was cast in this old comfy place,
That gives value to his face.
It isn't vests of fancy plaid
Or pants with a majestic glow—
We rather count upon the man
Inside the duds at Kokomo.
—Horace Dodd Gastin in Harper's Weekly.

No Gentlemen in the Senate
There are no "gentlemen" in the senate. That is to say, there are none in a parliamentary sense. They are all gentlemen in polite society, but they must not be referred to as such during the senate proceedings.
It is perfectly proper in the house of representatives to refer to an associate on the floor as the "Gentleman from Maryland or Maine or Florida," but to speak of a senator as the "Gentleman from Tennessee or Virginia or Rhode Island" would be an unpardonable breach of senatorial proprieties. The member of the upper branch must always be called or addressed as the "senator from so-and-so."

Ever and anon Vice President Sherman, who got his parliamentary training in the house, speaking from the chair to "the gentleman, etc." He generally catches himself in time to save himself a rebuke from some stickler for form.

Not long ago a new senator in making a speech continued to refer to an associate as "the gentleman from New York." He was allowed to finish his speech, but when he had concluded, Senator Gallinger rose and administered a gentle but effective rebuke to the new member.
"I do not wish to reflect upon the senator from New York," said Senator Gallinger, "by suggesting that he is not the gentleman which he has been so frequently called during the late address, but we know that the practice in this body prohibits such usage."—Washington Post.

The Crucial Test
At an adjourned town council meeting in the north, a member casually mentioned that a person could not enjoy or even distinguish between drinks in the dark. A worthy ballie denied this and offered to bet that blindfolded he could name any drink given him. The bet being accepted and the ballie blindfolded, the test commenced. The ballie drank everything submitted, smacked his lips and correctly named the

THE Goose Girl
By HAROLD MCGRATH

"I was captain of B troop in the same regiment. Hurrah! Work's over for the day. Come along with me, Grumbach, and we'll talk it over down-stairs in the Black Eagle. You're a godsend. C troop! Hanged if the world doesn't move things about oddly. I was in the hospital myself after Gettysburg; a ball in the leg. And I've rheumatism even now when a damp spell comes."

So down to the tavern they went, and there they talked the battles over, sundry tankards interpolating. It was "Do you remember this?" and "Do you recall that?" with diagrams drawn in beer on the oaken table.
"But there's one thing, my boy," said Carmichael.
"What's that?"
"The odds were on our side, or we'd be fighting yet."
"That we would. The poor devils were always hungry when we whipped them badly."
"But you're from this side of the water?"
"Yes; went over when I was twenty-two." Grumbach sucked his pipe stolidly.
"What part of Germany?"
"Bavaria; it is so written in my passports."
"Munich?"
Grumbach circled the room. All the near tables were vacant. The Black Eagle was generally a lonely place till late in the afternoon. Grumbach touched the scar tenderly. Could he trust this man? Could he trust any one in the world? The impulse came to trust Carmichael, and he did not disregard it.
"I was born in this very street," he whispered.

"Sh! Not so loud! Yes, in this very street. But if the police knew, I wouldn't be worth that!"—with a snap of the fingers. "My passports, my American citizenship, they would be worthless. You know that."
"But what does this all mean? What have you done that you can't come back here openly?" Here was a mystery. This man with the kindly face and frank eyes could be no ordinary criminal. "Can I help you in any way?"
"No; no one can help me."
"But why did you come back? You were safe enough in New York."

"Who can say what a man will do? Don't question me. Let be. I have said too much already. Some day perhaps I shall tell you why. When I went away I was thin and pale and had yellow hair. Today I am fat, gray-headed; I have made money. Who will recognize me now. No one."
"But your name?"
Grumbach laughed unmusically. "Grumbach is as good as another. Listen. You are my comrade now; we have shed our blood on the same field. There is no tie stronger than that. When I left Dreiberg there was a reward of a thousand crowns for me. Dead or alive, preferably dead."

Carmichael was plainly bewildered. He tried to recall the past history of Ehrenstein which would offer a niche for this inoffensive-looking German. He was blocked.
"Dead or alive," he repeated.
"So."
"You were mad to return."
"I know it. But I had to come; I couldn't help it. Oh, don't look like that! I never hurt anybody, unless it was in battle," naively. "Ask no more, my friend. I promise to tell you when the right time comes. Now, will you get me that invitation to the gallery at the military ball?"
"I will, if you will give me your word, as a soldier, as a comrad in arms, that you have no other purpose than to look at the people."
"As God is my judge"—solemnly—"that is all I wish to do. Now, what has happened since I went away? I have dared to ask questions of no one."

Carmichael gave him a brief summary of events, principal among which was the amazing restoration of the Princess Hildegarde. When he had finished, Grumbach remained dumb and motionless for a time.
"And what is her serene highness like?"
To describe the Princess Hildegarde was not only an easy task, but a pleasant one to Carmichael, and if he embroidered this description here and there, Grumbach was too deeply concerned with the essential points to notice these variations in the theme.

"So she is gentle and beautiful? Why not? Ach! You should have seen her mother. She was the most drink until the taker was in despair. Then 'try him w' water,' whispered a councillor, and the hint was taken. Sip—smack—sip—a shake shake of the head—"I cannot just mind the name of this, but I mind o' tasting it when I was a wee ladie."—London Chronicle.

We All Know This Town
A shoe drummer alighted from the train at Farville and looked up and down the street. Presently Yick Lee came along with a bundle of soiled laundry, and the drummer halted him with:
"John, how much of a place is this here town of Farville?"
"Steeet ca' ev'ly twenty minute," replied the Chinaman.—Everybody's Magazine.

Wingold
THE FINEST FLOUR IN THE WORLD
Sometimes the choicest cuts of meat, the finest fruits, etc., are laid away for exclusive, or favored customers. Not so with "WINGOLD" FLOUR. It's the best we got, and the same goods, encased in the same package, goes into the humble home of the laboring man and the home of the millionaire.
A. GRAMS & SONS, MORNING STAR MILLS, LA CROSSE.

beautiful woman in all Germany, and she sang like one of those Italian nightingales. I recall her when I was a boy. I would gladly have died at a word from her. All loved her. The king of Jugendheim wanted her, but she loved the grand duke. So the Princess Hildegarde has come back to her own? God is good!" And Grumbach bent his head reverently.

"Well," said Carmichael, beckoning to the waitress, and paying the score. "If any trouble rises, send for me. You don't look like a man who has done anything very bad." He offered his hand again.
Grumbach pressed it firmly, and there was a moisture in his eyes.
Together they returned to the Grand Hotel for lunch. On the way neither talked very much. They were both thinking of the same thing, but from avenues diametrically opposed. Grumbach declined Carmichael's invitation to lunch, and immediately sought his own room.

Once there, he closed the shutters so as to admit but half the day's light, and opened his battered trunk. From the false bottom, which had successfully eluded the vigilance of a dozen frontiers, he took out a small bundle. Mad fool that he had been! How many times had he gazed at these trinkets in these sixteen or more years? How often had he uttered lamentations over them? How many times had the talons of remorse gashed his heart.

Two little yellow shoes, so small that they lay on his palm as lightly as two butterflies; a little cloak trimmed with ermine; a golden locket shaped like a heart!

CHAPTER VII.
An Elder Brother.
Grumbach was very fond of music, and in America there were never any hands except at political meetings or at the head of processions; and that wasn't the sort of music he preferred. There was nothing at the Opera, so he decided to spend the earlier part of the evening in the public garden. He was lonely; he had always been lonely. Men who carry depressing secrets generally are. He searched covertly among the many faces for one that was familiar, but he saw none; and he was at once glad, and sorry. Yes, there was one face; the rubicund countenance of the bandmaster. It was older, more wrinkled, but it was the same. How many years had the old fellow swung the baton? At least thirty years. In his boyhood days Grumbach had put that brilliant uniform side by side with the grand duke's. As it was impossible for him ever to become a duke, his ambition had been to arrive at the next greatest thing—the bandmaster. As he neared the pavilion he laughed silently and grimly. To have grown wealthy as a master plumber instead! So much for ambition!

Subsequently he found himself standing beside a young vintner and his peasant sweetheart. Their hands secretly met and locked behind their backs. Grumbach sighed. Never would he know aught of this double love. This Eden would never have any gate for him to push aside. He would always go his way alone.

Abe's Terms Accepted
One day recently Kin Hubbard, the originator of "Abe Martin," received a letter from the Loogotees (Ind.) Bible class for men, asking his terms for a lecture, says the Indianapolis News. Now, if there is anything Kin does on it is—lecturing! He much prefers it to having a leg amputated or joy riding on a buzz saw. In replying to the letter Kin simply said his terms would be $1,000,000 a minute, provided the Bible class could get the Mar-a band to play while he was speak'g.
Mr. Hubbard received reply from D. M. Robins of Loogotees, the president of the class. It was this:
Dear Mr. Hubbard: We have considered your favor of May 23 and have decided to engage you at your price for 10 minutes, provided we can get the band. Sincerely yours, LOOGOTEES BIBLE CLASS FOR MEN D. M. Robins, President.

Among Investment Securities Generally Recognized as Conservative, the 8% Stock of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company Stands at the Very Top
Why are certain securities on the Stock Exchange List regarded as conservative for investment purposes?
Because they give the highest returns possible consistent with safety to the investor.
In any investment there are two things to consider—the rate of interest and the degree of safety. Generally speaking, the lower the rate of interest the higher the degree of safety, and vice versa.
Beyond a certain point in returns, investing ends and speculating begins. Investing assures reasonable profit—with minimum risk. Speculating promises larger profits—but entails greater risk.
If you cannot afford to lose, you will do well to choose for investment those securities whose perfect combination of profit and safety entitle them to be classed as "conservative."

CARNIVAL IS NOW ASSURED

Council Last Night Granted Permission to Use the Streets for One Week

The action of the common council last night in granting the North Side Amusement association the use of certain streets for one week, makes the north side carnival an assured affair. The association will now proceed with the arrangements for the event. It is planned to hold the carnival here the week beginning July 4. The same streets as have been used in the past years will again be the scene of the carnival, the attractions of which will be furnished by the Cosmopolitan Carnival company, one of the best in the country.

The annual bonus which the City Street railway company has been in the habit of furnishing the North Side Amusement Association for the business which the carnival brings into the coffers of the street car company, has this year, been withheld. The efforts of the officers of the association to get a bonus from the car company have been unavailing and it is understood that the street car company will not advance any financial aid to the association.

DANGER IN DELAY

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for La Crosse People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in La Crosse.

Thomas Raper, 1626 Winnebago St., La Crosse, Wis., says: "About nine years ago symptoms of kidney trouble made their appearance in my case. My back became so weak and lame that I dared not stoop and the pains through my kidneys were severe. I had but little control over the passages of the kidney secretions and was in a bad shape when Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention. I procured a supply at Erhart & Son's Drug Store and through their use was entirely relieved. No remedy ever helped me as much as Doan's Kidney Pills and consequently I willingly recommend them."

ENGINE BACKS THROUGH A WALL

Locomotive No. 1642 Plows Through a Brick Wall at Grand Crossing This Morning

When the round house employees at the Burlington round house at Grand Crossing came to work this morning they were somewhat surprised to find that one of the large switch engines had plowed its way head first through a heavy brick wall. The engine was slightly damaged, the head light being smashed and the pilot being wrecked.

The switch engine had been left in the round house for the night and the exact cause of the sudden departure of the locomotive for the outside is unknown. There was no one in the round house at the time of the occurrence. The engine tore a large hole in the side of the building but stopped upon reaching the exterior. The engine and the building is now being repaired.

GRAFTERS THRIVE ON PEOPLE'S IGNORANCE

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 11.—Senator Beveridge who introduced a tariff bill several years ago and had been persistent in advocating the idea, hailed the appropriation for such a board in the senate as a triumph to be followed by big results.

"Let no man think," he said, "that what we are now beginning will be temporary. We are laying the foundation for an institution which soon will be completed into a genuine, permanent, non-partisan tariff commission or board, whose authority, powers and duties will be steadily increased and definitely defined in law as events compel."

"The story of the growth of the powers and authority of the interstate commerce commission will be repeated. There are two classes of men who do not want the facts found out—those interests whose abnormal and unrighteous profits are made possible only by the people's ignorance of the facts, and second, those theorists who know that the people's knowledge of the facts would utterly destroy their theory."

"We are not only for this idea as a matter of sheer justice, but we are for it because we will not have the word 'protection' used to cloak and excuse tariff excesses which are not only wrong in themselves but which by insulting the moral instincts of the people endanger the protective principle itself."

"Why are those who pretend to be for tariff for revenue only in this chamber against this measure? Are they alarmed at the prospects of facts being laid before the American people? Is it because they know that if the actual truth about the differences between the cost of production in this country and in foreign countries is laid before this nation by the cold report of impartial experts instead of by heated—overstatements of partisans, their propaganda will be destroyed?"

BLOW WHISTLES

WELCOME TEDDY

Whistles will blow in La Crosse when former President Roosevelt comes back to his own—just as they are going to blow in about every city and town in the land—but there is a problem connected with the blowing of the whistles which is bothering the men who are planning the blow for Roosevelt in La Crosse. The problem is—when is official blowing time?

They are facing the same question in New York, only it is different. There they are on the job in person. In La Crosse they are on the job and the whistles are willing and anxious to toot for Roosevelt, but there is no general committee to tell the whistles when to cut loose.

RICH LONDONER WEDS DANCER

LONDON, June 11.—Miss Adeline Genee, the sprightly Danish dancer, who has won fame on both sides of the Atlantic, was married today in All Saints church to Frank Isitt, a big land agent and the business partner of the Duke of New Castle.

Only the fact of the national mourning for King Edward kept the wedding from being a brilliant social event.

Miss Genee was given away by the Duke of New Castle. Alexandra, the queen mother, gave the bride a diamond brooch. Other members of the nobility gave costly presents.

While Isitt declares his wife may continue her professional dancing if she desires, it is feared that the brilliant artist is lost to the stage, at least for several years.

DON JOHNSON IS HOME FROM EAST

Young Man who Paderewski Sent to New York, Completes First Year's Study

Having completed his first year's instruction in a musical academy in New York City at the expense of Paderewski, the great musician, Don Johnson, the one-handed boy wonder, has returned to his home in Centerville, Wis., where he will visit his parents for the summer vacation.

Young Johnson met the great pianist in La Crosse and the latter, after hearing Johnson play, offered to further the youth's education by sending him to a New York musical academy, paying all expenses. The young man paid little attention to the offer at the time, but last fall when he received a letter from Paderewski notifying him to prepare for a three years' course, he was nearly thunderstruck. He went to New York, however, and at the conclusion of the summer vacation will return to the east to resume his studies. Mr. Johnson will spend some of his time in La Crosse, visiting friends here.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliouness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-toxic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

CIRCUS LICENSE BEFORE COUNCIL

Effort Is Again Made to Reduce Fee from $200
to $100 for Big Shows

The question of circus licenses came up again before the council last evening when an ordinance was introduced for its first and second reading by Alderman Schneberger. The ordinance provides that all circuses charging an admission fee of 50 cents shall pay into the city treasury the sum of $100; when an admission of 25 cents is charged the license fee shall be $50. The ordinance also provides for a license fee of $25 for side shows when conducted in connection with a circus. The proposed ordinance reduces the license fee one-half, the present ordinance providing for a license of $200 for 50 cent circuses and $100 for 25 cent shows.

The ordinance was referred to the committee on ordinance and finance. To Send Delegates After considerable discussion the council decided to send five delegates to the annual convention of the Wisconsin League of Municipalities to be held at Fond du Lac and three delegates to the convention of the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association to be held at St. Paul. Both conventions are to be held on the same dates, namely: July 12 to 14.

Alderman Downs believed the city received no material benefit as a result of sending delegates. Alderman Vollmar agreed with him believing the city is spending too much money along these lines.

Alderman Smith favored sending delegates but thought they should be the mayor, city engineer and city attorney.

Alderman Rose said the municipal league convention is a gathering representing the people and therefore the delegates should be selected from the list of aldermen.

It was finally decided to send the mayor, city engineer and city attorney and two aldermen to Fond du Lac and three aldermen to St. Paul.

Other Council Matters
The city attorney and the city clerk were authorized to act as reading clerks in the common council. Hereafter the aldermen having matters to be read will announce the nature of the paper and then hand it to either the city attorney or city clerk to be read.

The board of public works was authorized to advertise for bids for furnishing coal for next winter's use in the various city departments.

THE MICROSCOPE

Proves That Parasites Cause Hair Loss

Nine-tenths of the diseases of the scalp and hair are caused by parasitic germs. The importance of this discovery by Professor Unna of the Charity hospital, Hamburg, Germany, can not be overestimated. It explains why ordinary hair preparations, even of the most expensive character fail to cure dandruff; because they do not, and they cannot kill the dandruff germ. The only hair preparation in the world that positively destroys the dandruff parasites that burrow up the scalp into scales called scurf or dandruff, is Newbro's Herpicide. In addition to its destroying the dandruff germ Herpicide is also a delightful hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. Hoerschler Bros., special agents.

The fine weather of the past few days bring quite forcibly to mind the good old picnic days. Thermos bottles, picnic baskets with their paraphernalia, heavy shoes and out-fitting suits are put in order for the coming season, for if there is one thing that La Crosse is long on it certainly is picnics. Rain or shine a picnic will bring out the crowd. And right here wouldn't it be well to mention that some of the picnicers do not leave the most tidy grounds. Papers are scattered broadcast, lunch boxes and remnants of the feast are left making a most unsightly appearance and is certainly very annoying, especially when on private grounds.

BLITZ AND BLATZ

Blitz—Everytime I meet you, I am the gaffer for knowledge. Do you remember you spoke to me about "Lees Cream" being such an excellent thing for the skin?
Blatz—Certainly. Nothing else acts so prompt and soothingly in all cases of roughened or sunburned skin.

Blitz—Mrs. Blatz and myself took quite an auto trip yesterday. It was raw and windy, and after returning she complained about her face hurting and burning severely. I immediately went to Bayschlag's Drug Store, 503 Main street, for a 25c bottle of that "Lees Cream," and applied it freely to Mrs. Blatz's face. In the morning all the unpleasant symptoms had absolutely disappeared.
Blatz—I know it. That's the way "Lees Cream" always acts.
Blitz—I would not have believed it, that any remedy could have such marvelous effect over night had I not witnessed it. Blatz, I want you to accept this beautiful bouquet, which I just bought for you at Mrs. Guillaume's.

Indian Dandruff Remedy

LOOKS mean a lot to success, and nice hair means everything to look. Indian Dandruff Remedy is the very best remedy for every hair trouble, because it is taken direct from nature, for it contains Essence of Henna, which starts the natural flow of oils in the hair and stimulates the hair follicles to life and health. Besides, it contains only one-half of one per cent of alcohol, while other dandruff remedies are full of alcohol, which starts the growth and removes the natural oil of the hair. It is used by all the best barbers.

YOU don't know that most all Shampoos are prepared with alkali from inferior soap-grease, which is most injurious to the scalp. Indian Shampoo is made of pure olive oil and Russian Egg Albumen, without one bit of alkali or anything of the sort. It is the purest, most healing cleanser, can be used and cleanses more essential to the health and growth of the hair. It is used by all the best barbers.

JUDGE REID MAY PAY OWN EXPENSE

Waterway Commissioner who Studied Abroad Must Go to Legislature Says Atty. General

According to a decision of Attorney General Gilbert in response to a request Secretary of State Frear, Judge R. S. Reid, waterways commissioner of Wisconsin, may not be permitted to draw from the treasury of the state a sum to compensate him for expenses incurred on a trip to Europe to investigate the subject of waterways transportation, unless the legislature or the courts decide to the contrary.

It appears that Judge Reid made the trip to Europe at the request of the president of the national waterways commission and in a letter by Judge Reid to Secretary Frear the former points out that he could not accept compensation either as salary or expense account from the national commission without resigning his office of waterways commissioner.

In his opinion Attorney General Gilbert calls attention to the law creating the office of waterways commissioner and which provides that the commissioner shall be appointed in the same manner for a term of three years and shall receive the same compensation and be under the same restrictions as far as practicable as the members of the railroad commission. The law further provides that the claims of the commissioner for necessary expenses shall be incurred, audited and paid in the same way as are those of the railroad commission.

"I am unable to find," says Attorney General Gilbert, "any express legislative authorization for the commissioner to go beyond the boundaries of the state at its expense, irrespective of 'reasonable necessity,' and therefore I cannot say as a matter of law that the expense incurred by him (Judge Reid) on his trip to Europe, at the invitation of the national waterways commission are such necessary expenses 'incurred by public duties' as the statute authorize you to audit. In the absence of express legislative authorization or of such a record as convinces you, as state auditor, of a reasonable necessity thereof, I believe the claim is one that should be submitted to the legislature or to the courts to pass upon."

In effect the opinion puts the question of "reasonable necessity" up to the secretary of state and if that official determines, as a matter of fact, that the expenses were reasonably necessary then he may pay the bill.

SEARCH WORLD FOR MURDERER OF WIFE

April 24. They were in almost constant communication with the Naples authorities today regarding the murder. Nothing to connect the two murders has yet been made public.

Expelled from Hotel

The proprietor of the Suisse hotel in Como, where the Charltons stopped for a few days before taking up their residence in the cottage near Moltrasio, was examined by the police today regarding Charlton's alleged misbehavior of his wife. He admitted that the stories of cruelty were true and repeated his statement that the couple quarreled so violently and that Charlton had treated his wife so badly that he was forced to expel them from the hotel.

Tired of Her

The police believe that Charlton, who was at least 12 years younger than his wife, soon tired of her after their marriage three months ago, information having been received from America that he married her as the result of a sudden infatuation.

One of the most complete dragnets ever set for a fugitive is spread for Charlton and it is not believed that he can long evade arrest. Every shipping point has been warned and the police throughout Europe have been given descriptions of him.

The Charltons evidently sought to throw an air of mystery about themselves while here. They reversed their names and were known as the "Charlton Porters." To some people Charlton passed himself off as the nephew of his wife, the disparity in their ages making this easy.

A search of the effects of Mrs. Charlton found in her cottage failed to give any clue to the murder. There were scores of letters addressed to her under her maiden name of Mary Crittenden Scott and under that of Mrs. Castle from her first marriage.

Her Brother Investigating

NEW YORK, June 11.—The last word received from Mrs. Mary Castle-Charlton by her brother, Captain Henry N. Scott of the United States army, now stationed at Fort Wright, Fischers Island, was a letter dated April 16, telling of her marriage and that she and her husband planned to live in Frankfurt, Germany, for two years.

"I have cabled for all information possible," declared Captain Scott, today, "and until I receive details, I cannot say what is best to do. Mary wrote me while on shipboard telling that she had married the son of Mr. Charlton of Washington, in Wilmington, Del., on March 12. She was pressed for time, she wrote, and gave me no details. I have heard nothing further from her and had supposed she was visiting points of interest in Europe."

Other friends of Mrs. Charlton, who stuck to her after her attempt to shoot Wm. B. Craig in "Peacock Alley" at the Waldorf hotel, say that when she went abroad she expected to return this fall. They say that she met Charlton while he was

WHY ARE SYSTEM HEADS PROTECTED

Mason Reiterates it Is Because Senators Are Serving the Powers that Put Them There

CHICAGO, June 11.—Former Senator Wm. E. Mason of Illinois, reiterating his charges that fifty percent of the United States senators held their seats by purchase, direct or indirect, said:

"I hope I may without offending, call attention to a few votes within the last few weeks in the senate. The senators refuse to permit the punishment of the violators of the interstate commerce law by imprisonment, knowing that to be the only way it can be stopped. Within the last ten days they have voted by quite a majority that it is none of the people's business how much the transportation companies have in actual values and that it is therefore none of the business of the people how much watered stocks and bonds we pay dividends on."

"Let any man ask himself the questions: Whom does the senate represent—the people or the so-called interests? Humanity or Cash? I say respectfully that the senators represent the power that made them senators. If they had to go back to the people instead of back to the check book for their endorsement they would vote oftener with the people and against the checkbook."

STEALS FOR GIRL LATTER DENIES IT

Frank W. Jerome Pleads Guilty to Burglary and Gets Year and a Half

Charged with burglarizing the retail hardware establishment of the Fred Kroner Hardware company, F. W. Jerome of Minneapolis, and a woman, giving her name as Carrie Martinson, were arrested by Detective McGrath and Patrolman Wendling yesterday afternoon in Levee park. A quantity of silverware and a carving set, identified as property of the Kroner company, were found upon the person of Jerome, while other goods were found in a handbag carried by the woman. At the place where the couple roomed for the night it was announced that Jerome left the building twice. The burglary was committed between 1 and 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Two guns taken from the store were sold to a local dealer. Yesterday morning nothing was missed, but since then the property found in the possession of the couple, has been identified as belonging to the Kroners.

This morning the couple was arraigned before Judge Brindley. The girl was charged with receiving stolen property, to which she pleaded not guilty, and her case was set for Monday morning.

Jerome was then arraigned upon the charge of burglary. "I will take the whole blame and plead guilty," said the prisoner after the charge had been read. Jerome said he was 24 years old and his home was in Minneapolis. He said he never saw his parents, having been left alone when he was 11 weeks old. He met the girl last February and is engaged to be married to her. A few days ago, according to Jerome's story, she came to La Crosse with a small amount of money, and while here she claimed a man whom she met took it away from her. Thereupon she wrote to Jerome, who came to help her out.

Neither had any money and Jerome told the court that he could not get a cent and therefore he had to do something to get food. He told his girl that he would get some money somewhere and upon returning to the place where they were rooming, brought with him some silverware and razors. He said he told the girl that he had stolen them.

The court sentenced Jerome to a year and one-half at the Green Bay reformatory.

BLEACHING GAS EATS THE PIPES

Millers Testify at Kansas City that Bread from Such Flour Moulds Quickly

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 11.—Witnesses in the bleached flour case testified here yesterday that the gas used in the "Alsop" bleaching process had destroyed rubber hose and iron pipe through which it passed. Samuel T. Ballard of Louisville, Ky., said he used the Alsop process in his mill from 1904 to 1909. The gas ate out the pipes, he said. Ballard also testified that bleached flour did not keep well, the bread made from it moulding quicker than that made from unbleached flour. Archie Comstock of Ellsworth, Kan., testified that a piece of rubber hose he used in conveying gas into his bleaching machinery had been rotted out.

Dr. Gustave Mann of New Orleans was cross-examined by the defense. William Wolf, a baker of Baton Rouge, La., and J. E. Mitchell, president of a bleaching process company, were other witnesses.

The Listman Mill Company of this city has always opposed the bleaching process and has never had any bleaching apparatus in the mill; in fact, it is the only large mill that has never bleached its flour.

WINDOW DISPLAY OF "HOME GOODS"

George B. Frederick of the Frederick Publishing company, which recently moved to the commodious store building at 209 South Fifth street, has inaugurated a novel idea for the promotion of La Crosse-made goods. Mr. Frederick announces he will donate his display window to the manufacturers of La Crosse. Each week a different "La Crosse-made" product will be displayed in the window, to promote the sale of the goods at home.

Mr. Frederick started the display today with the camp stove which is the invention of Harry Long, advertising manager of the Gund Brewing company. This stove is a folding affair which when closed up takes up little more room than a jointed fish rod, and is finding great favor among fishermen and campers. Mr. Frederick proposes to have a new display each week, taking in some home-made article each time, until every La Crosse-made article is given a week's display.

The Northwest Trade Journal, edited by Mr. Frederick, will also be issued from the new offices, and copy for the forthcoming number is now being prepared.

ORCHESTRA GIVES A FINE CONCERT

The high school orchestra gave their first annual concert at the high school auditorium last night, rendering an interesting program. Twelve numbers were given, including waltzes, two-steps and classical selections. Prof. H. Kline gave a clarinet solo, the "Selection from William Tell," and Clarence and Percy Drake gave a cornet and trombone duet, "Alice Where Art Thou." Both selections proved features.

"Until the Dawn" and "Student Days," the two numbers given by the male chorus, were well received, and the boys were encored to the limit.
All the boys did well, showing that they have learned a great deal, and developed their talent greatly under the capable direction of Miss Martha Rollins, who directs all their rehearsals. This concert proved an interesting one, and it is hoped that it will be repeated in future years, as the audience appreciated the boys efforts to the fullest extent.

OUTCASTS WIN A PITCHER'S DUEL

Baillies and Whittaker
Each Allow Three Hits;
Wais Scores Only
Run of Game

WINONA, Minn., June 11.—The La Crosse Outcasts won a hard fought pitcher's battle between Baillies and Whittaker yesterday by the score of 1 to 0. Each team secured three hits and the batters fell easy victims to the slants of the twirlers. Baillies, however, had a shade the best of the argument as he allowed but one base on balls while Baits gave four free passes.

It was truly the greatest game seen here this season and it was watched by a packed grandstand, filled with hundreds of ladies out for the observance of ladies' day at the park. The day was ideal and through it all a smiling sun seemed to grin mockingly at Baillies as he hurled, Trojan-like, to overcome a prestige given to the visitors through the bungle of one of his team mates. The game should have gone into extra frames with no scores at the end of the ninth.

That Only Run
The only run of the game came in the second inning, after two were out. With Wais at bat, Baillies fed one over the pan which was met by the batsman for an infield grounder. It went straight to Goodman who, in a juggling act, allowed the runner to reach first. Doll, the next batter, hit a hot one to Davey which got away and which advanced Wais, who had stolen second, to third. Doll was detected trying to steal second and while Keopping and Curtis were attempting to run down the runner, Wais scored and Doll got safe. Kuehn next to bat, got a hit and Doll went to third. Kuehn tried to pilfer the second bag but ran out of the base line and was out before Doll could score. With that performance the scoring ended.

LITTLE MAY GO BACK ON OLD JOB

His Threats are Worrying Promoters; Jeffries Shows Up Well with Corbett

(By Max Balthasar.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 11.—The arena at Eighth and Market streets in which Jeffries and Johnson will do battle on July 4, is beginning to show some kind of shape and the contractors declare it will be fully completed by July 1. It is now one-third completed and shows monster size. Builders declare it is the greatest structure of its kind ever attempted, being 400 feet square and with sufficient room to accommodate 38,000 persons comfortably. The promoters believe the arena will be jammed on the day of the big fight. The seats will range from $5 to $50 and it is no idle boast to declare the gate receipts will reach somewhere in the neighborhood of $250,000 or $300,000. As Rickard and Gleason, the promoters, have put up a purse of $101,000 and will have spent another $100,000 on preliminary expenses by the day of the fight, they will probably make $75,000 or $100,000 out of the gate receipts, as well as one-third of the receipts from the moving pictures. As these will probably be worth $300,000—a bid of $250,000 has already been received—it is easy to see how Rickard and Gleason will cut $100,000 each out of the big battle.

The sale of seats shows that $114,000 worth have already been disposed of, while the total reservations to date reach $200,000.

Jack Destroys Notice

The Johnson-Little muss goes merrily on. Little having served legal papers on Johnson, Rickard and Gleason in a suit for 25 per cent of profits Jack Johnson may make in any profession until May, 1911. Johnson tore up his copy of the legal document, declaring it was not worth the paper it was printed on. The contract by which Little hopes to force payment of his claims was signed in

POOR CONDITION COSTLY TO "AD"

Wolgast Nearly Loses His Fight with Redmond, whom He Had Sized Up as Easy Mark

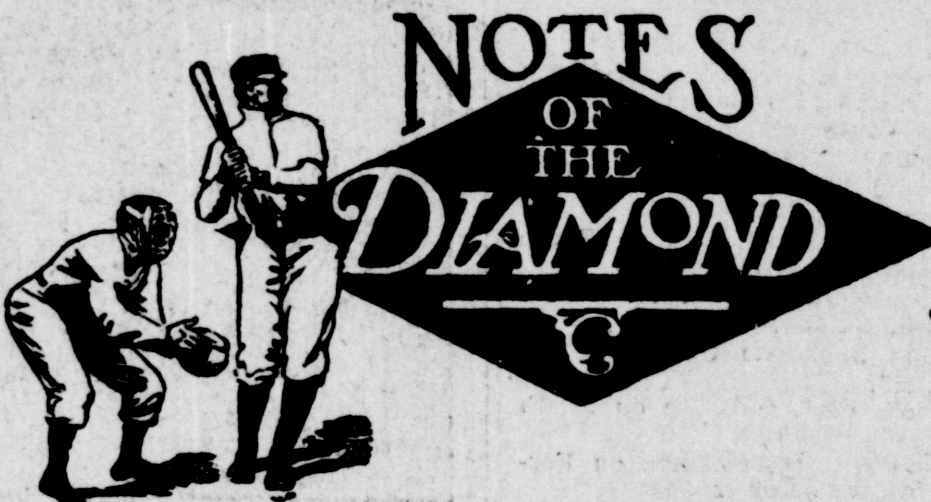

(By Max Balthasar.)

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 11.—The disabling of Ad Wolgast last night in his fight with Jack Redmond is the penalty of poor condition. Wolgast went into the ring thinking that he had only a tame battle ahead of him, and that he would be able to finish the battle in the first two or three rounds. His early fighting showed that he was expecting Redmond to be wearied by the rushes and that he would then with his far superior boxing ability drive home the finish punch. In this expectation he had not trained more than three days for the battle. Redmond was not the easy mark that was expected. Redmond made him work as he has never worked before. It was during one of the Redmond rushes that Ad stopped a vicious light hand punch with his forearm that he was injured. This morning the doctors say that a tendon was dislocated at the elbow by the blow, and driven between two bones of the forearm. The injury will in no likelihood prove permanent but will prevent Wolgast doing any training for some weeks to come.

Gameness displayed by Wolgast was amazing. It was not until the fight was ended that any but those at the immediate ringside saw that Wolgast was hurt. For six rounds Redmond was fighting a one-armed man. Although local papers give the fight to Redmond, they admit that he was in no degree equal to Wolgast in skill, strength or generalship.

Until the champions arm was hurt it looked like a slaughter for Redmond. Wolgast is around town this morning with his arm in a bandage. He says he will take a couple months' rest after which he will go after some of the top notchers.

A man is apt to think he is having a moral awakening when he begins to sit up and take notice of his neighbor's sins.

Darby will have a new team when he comes to this city again. The White Sox have been strengthened by the addition of Pitcher Blanche Dayton, Pettijohn at first, Foy at short, Lewis at third, Ryan in the outfield, Sweeney behind the bat and Vasbinder in the garden. One bug shaken up.

Manager Jack Corrigan of the Rochester Surgeons has the typhoid fever. First Baseman Dunn is temporarily in charge of the team while Jack is confined in the hospital city.

Manager Killian of the Winona team has released Outfielder Bovan to Rochester, and signed Outfielder

HARVARD CREW PICKED

BOSTON, Mass., June 11.—For the first time since the race with Cornell, Coach Wray today seems satisfied with the Harvard varsity eight which seemingly has settled into the following order: Stroke, Cutler; 7, Bacon; 6, Strong; 5, Waid; 4, Withington; 3, Metcalf; 2, Newton; bow, Whitney; coxswain, King. There will be but one more row before the men leave for Red Top on Sunday. It will come late this afternoon but no further shifts are expected.

Auction Sale on Large Scale.

The old adage that one half of the world knows not how the other half lives applies in a measure to the fact that there were sold by auction in New York last week between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 worth of carpets and rugs, the product of a big carpet mill at Yonkers, N. Y. The sale was conducted on the upper floor of one of the big buildings along Fifth avenue in the wholesale district, and continued from Monday morning, when it opened, until Saturday evening at 7:30. It was attended by buyers from all over the country, who spent the entire day in the auction room, taking only a brief respite at noon time for luncheon. The luncheon was provided at the salesroom, so that the buyers did not have to leave the building and consisted of a supply daily of 5,000 sandwiches, 30 gallons of coffee, 20 gallons of consommé and 500 bottles of beer. On Friday fish was served to those who do not eat meat.

Flattery may be all right for dessert, but it makes an unsatisfactory meal.

JIM SMITH KNOCKED OUT BY KETCHER

NEW YORK, June 11.—Smiling Ketcher knocked out Jim Smith of the National Sporting Club, in the fifth round last night. Smith, the middleweight champion, cut himself to the limit to secure his victory.

If Smith was awed by the champion's prowess, he failed utterly to show it for he waded in from the start and forced the fighting at every turn of the game. It was right to the jaw, following a blow to the body, that produced the knock for the light heavyweight.

Mugsy McGraw, the scrappy manager of the New York Giants, was a spectator, received several invitations from fight fans to adjourn to the sidewalk and fight out differences existing over the Ketcher-Smith fight, but history does not show that McGraw accepted the invitation.

The Value of Brick

used for building material last year exceeded in value all other building materials combined.

BRICK has been tried and found to withstand the test of time and the elements better than iron, wood, cement or stone.

No other building material offers such a low cost of maintenance as BRICK.

There is literally nothing to do year, after year, to the outside walls of a BRICK building.

If you are building for home or investment, why use a material which must be constantly painted, repaired or even replaced.

Why not use BRICK, the price makes it the most economical of all materials.

It is all ready for use when you receive it.

BRICK will never be cheaper than it is now. It is a good time to build that new building which you are figuring on.

You can get any grade of BRICK you want fit for almost any purpose at a price which makes it attractive as a building material.

WHEN YOU BUILD USE BRICK.

FOREST FIRES AGAIN RAGING

Large Amount of Property Is Destroyed in the Northern Minnesota Woods

AURORA, Minn., June 11.—When the local fire department had succeeded in checking forest fires at the Knox Location late yesterday all the buildings had burned except the mine shaft and the boiler house. The forest fires became dangerous, menacing the buildings of the location Thursday afternoon and within two hours had destroyed the mine buildings, the dry office, store house, machine shop, blacksmithshop and other small buildings used for powder and supplies.

The flames leaped the creek, swept the residence section, destroying 12 new houses. Many of the families lost most of their household effects while single men lost everything except what they wore.

Flames are Spreading
TWO HARBORS, Minn., June 11.—Forest fires are raging all along the line of the Duluth and Iron Range railroad north of here and between here and Knife river.

At Waldo many of the settlers barely saved their homes. Bad fires are reported near Fairbanks, north of here and at Mile 44 and in the vicinity of Mesaba.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

John's Chocolates.

The office force of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway company at Eighth and Master streets had a good laugh on John, one of the clerks, the other morning, says the Philadelphia Times. He was telling his companions of a girl he was going to call upon that evening. All went well until after luncheon, when a package, very neatly done up, arrived for John. That got the boys; they had to see what was in it. When John went out they opened it and found it contained chocolates. These they took out and replaced with coal.

In the evening John called on his fair one and presented her with what he thought was chocolates. Of course she went on saying, "Oh, John, what did you bring these for?"

At the same time, glad he did so, she opened the box, took one out, and put it in her mouth. All of a sudden she said:

"Why, John, that's awfully funny candy."

After lighting the gas she discovered it was coal. John made all kinds of excuses, but failed.

WISCONSIN NEWS

WHY CONNOR WAS NAMED CHAIRMAN

Stalwarts Believe It Better to Keep on the Right Side of Him

MADISON, Wis., June 11.—The spectacle of the leaders of the "Taft conference" at Milwaukee this week looking toward W. D. Connor, the Marshfield lumberman, whom they had kicked out of all their conferences two weeks before, was in many respects the most interesting, and even significant feature of the stalwart round-up. The incident is furnishing ammunition of a most satisfying kind for the progressive managers in this city, who may be expected to make the most of it as the campaign goes on.

It was Mr. Connor who was selected by President Taft and Frank Hitchcock to run the Taft campaign in Wisconsin. Immediately thereafter the moneyed interests in the east sent Connor $20,000 to fight La Follette in this state. Connor held on to the money even after he had been thrown out of the councils of the stalwarts. Not only that, but in his dealings with the big eastern magnates the former state chairman learned things that if once divulged would have spelled complete ruin for the stalwart plans in the coming elections.

So within the past few days Connor went to the leaders of the convention and promised to tell all he knew if he were not invited to the big doings in the Milwaukee auditorium. This is why W. D. Connor happened to figure in the convention after his deposition had been announced to the world, and this is why Connor was elected chairman of the campaign committee. His connection as custodian of the campaign funds supplied from the east was essential, it developed, to the further conduct of the campaign.

Brings Out Hudnall
Simultaneous with the news of the election of Connor as campaign head came the announcement of the candidacy of Senator George B. Hudnall of Superior for lieutenant governor.

Plan Lively Campaign

The La Follette campaign is progressing smoothly, so the leaders say, and plans are being perfected for elaborate speaking tours. Francis E. McGovern, candidate for the republican nomination for governor, made his first speech of the campaign in the city on Tuesday. He announced to friends that later he expected to make a thorough canvass of the state, speaking in the smaller and outlying places first and making the larger cities later in the campaign. He will travel by train and automobile. In July both Senator La Follette and Candidate McGovern will be the headlines on the program of the Lake Cretch chalet. Herman L. Ekern, candidate for insurance commissioner, will also be there. The event will take on the character of a big political rally.

CAN'T COMPETE WITH ESKIMOS

"In all my experience I had never encountered a rougher, more difficult country in which to hunt than in Ellesmere Land," writes Harry Whitney of Cook-Pearry fame. "Ordinarily I should have believed these mountain sides, with walls of smooth rock sheathed with a crust of hard ice and snow, quite unscalable."

"In places they were almost perpendicular. Rarely did they offer a crevice to serve as foot or hand hold, and jutting points and firm set boulders were too widely scattered to be of much help."

"In this his native land the Eskimo has a decided advantage over the white hunter. His lifetime of experience has taught him to scale these ice-clad heights with a nimbleness and ease that are astounding. He is quite fearless, and even the mountain sheep is not his superior as a climber."

"As if by magic, and with little apparent effort, the two Eskimos flew up the slippery walls, far outstripping me. How they did it I shall never know. Now and again I was forced to cut steps in the ice or I should inevitably have lost my footing and been hurled downward several hundred feet to the rocks beneath."

"I was astonished even at my own progress, and when I paused to glance behind me I felt a momentary panic. But there was no turning back and one look robbed me of any desire to try it."

"The Eskimo has no conception of distance. He is endowed with certain instincts which enable him to draw a fairly good map of a coast line, but he cannot tell you how far it is from one point of land to another. Often when they told me a place we were bound for was very close at hand it developed that we were far from it. This they are never sure of and cannot indicate."

"The Eskimos have a white man 'stung to death' from every point of view. They not only can go to sleep promptly but sleep soundly and well as they travel, when circumstances permit. They get sustenance, too, by eating hard frozen walrus and seal meat or blubber. This I could never do, for it is so strong in flavor that it invariably nauseated me, though I did succeed very well with raw hare or deer's meat when I had it."—Outing Magazine.
